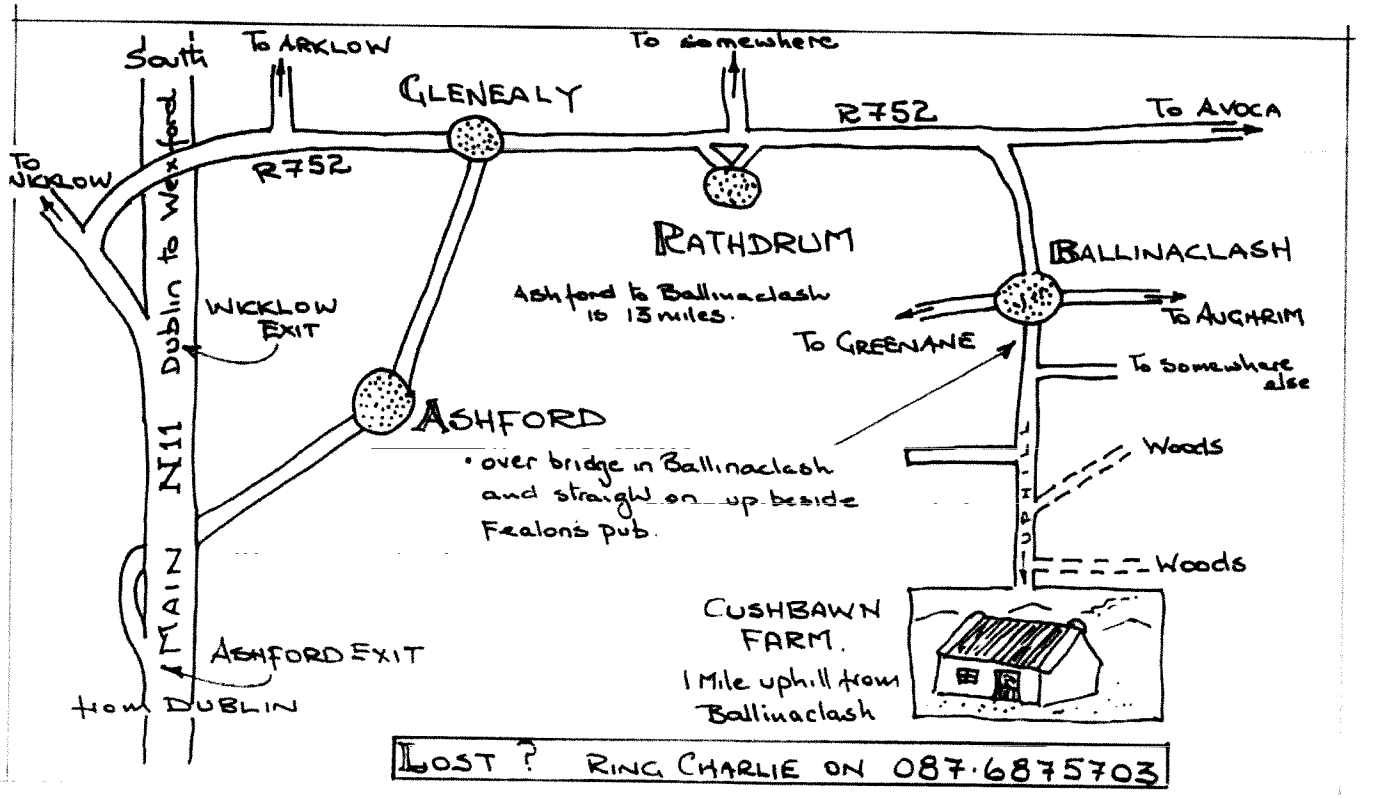
An Old and Young Coaching Trial
At Cushbawn, Ballinaclash, Co.Wicklow
Start 1200: Sign on from 1100

It is proposed to hold an informal 'Old and Young' Summer Trial on 13th May at Charlie Robinson's farm near Ballinaclash, Co. Wicklow. The intention is to run a social type event to encourage juniors and beginners and also older ungraded riders who are not regular competitors in Trials. Mini's and riders on elderly/classic/twin shock machines will also be catered for. Sections will be easy and non damaging and the objective is to have an enjoyable and social day, mixed with some leisurely trials riding and instruction. Bring a picnic – informality is the intention.

Eligibility – Mini's, Junior's, some occasional Grade D riders, Twin Shock and Pre 65 machines, also over 40s and over 50s riders. Riders from the upper echelons of Grade D, all Grade C, B and A riders may not compete but is earnestly hoped that they will turn up to help, enjoy the fun, advise, instruct and observe. Usual trials rules will apply, the event will be Motorcycling Ireland sanctioned but Competition Licences will not be necessary.

Awards – The Charlie Robinson Memorial Chamber Pot for the most meritorious performance.
Small souvenir awards for each class winner.
Particular pats on the back for those who ride noticeably well in the sections.
Assorted rounds of applause for senior riders who turn up and take part in the fun.

Some refreshments will be provided but it is hoped that participants and their families and friends will bring a picnic or other victuals in order to make a day of it.


Entries – To assist the organisers, it is hoped that intending riders will indicate their intentions by returning the attached entry form with the entry fee of €10. / €5 Juniors (to cover MCUI fees) before 10th May to Karen Balfe, Woodend, Blessington, Co. Wicklow.
